1 (Call to Order of the Court)

2 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: We are here for a scheduled
3 motion hearing in Case 3:17-CR-82, United States vs. Randall
4 Keith Beane and Heather Tucci-Jarraf.

5 Here on behalf of the government are Cynthia Davidson
6 and Anne-Marie Svolto.

7 Is the government present and ready to proceed?

8 MS. SVOLTO: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Here on behalf of the 10 defendant as elbow counsel, on behalf of Defendant Beane, is 11 Stephen McGrath.

12 Is the defendant ready to proceed?

13 MR. BEANE: Yes.

14 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: And as elbow counsel on behalf
15 of Ms. Tucci-Jarraf is Francis Lloyd.

16 Is the defendant present and ready to proceed?

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Heather is ready to proceed, yes.

18 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: Okay. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: All right. Before the Court today is the 20 filing of Ms. Tucci-Jarraf's praecipe to enter dismissal with 21 prejudice and Mr. Beane's motion to join in that filing. So 22 there's a number of other tangential motions or files that have 23 occurred since that time. We'll take those up separately.

24 Mr. Beane, is it correct that you want to join in 25 Ms. Tucci-Jarraf's praecipe filing?

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

1 MR. BEANE: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Do you know what a praecipe?

3 MR. BEANE: No.

4 THE COURT: Do you claim this Court has no
5 jurisdiction over you?

6 MR. BEANE: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Can you explain the legal basis for that 8 claim?

9 MR. BEANE: No.

10 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Tucci-Jarraf, how do you
11 pronounce your filing?

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Praecipe.

13 THE COURT: Praecipe. Okay. And what do you
14 understand a praecipe to be?

15 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Praecipe is a command and it's an 16 order.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So if I understand right, you
18 contend that you can order this Court to do certain things?

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Based on the UCC filings that were 20 supplied to everybody in this room, that is actually a
21 perfected judgment, which was also supplied to -- at the time,
22 Department of Justice had a public integrity, Jack Smith,
23 who -- well, until last month --

24 THE COURT: I think you're doing what you do in your 25 filings, which is going on and on and not --

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I'm giving you the legal basis for 2 actually having the authority to deliver a praecipe.

3 THE COURT: I will ask you that probably in a minute.

4 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay.

5 THE COURT: That wasn't what I asked you.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Based on my authority --

7 THE COURT: No.

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- that is in the UCCs --

9 THE COURT: That wasn't what I asked you.

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That is why the praecipe -- I'm 11 not commanding any office in this room, but I am just stating, 12 based on the judgment that was provided to everyone, this is 13 the command of how to move forward.

14 THE COURT: A praecipe is an order to do certain 15 things.

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Correct.

17 THE COURT: Is it your position that you can order me
18 to do certain things?

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It is my position that I have the 20 authority to -- with the filings, this Court does not exist.
21 The positions of the United States of America, United States, 22 the alleged defendant -- or excuse me, the alleged plaintiff in 23 this Court does not exist, and all proof has been provided to 24 show it was foreclosed and terminated. And, therefore,
25 Anne-Marie Svolto -- and, I'm sorry, Cynthia's last name.

1 MS. DAVIDSON: Davidson.

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Davidson. Thank you,
3 Ms. Davidson.

4 They are here of -- in their own personal
5 responsibility. So there's been no proof to show that it
6 exists or the authority or authorization. So it's not that I'm 7 commanding anybody. If we're in an official capacity, it is 8 that their official capacities do not even exist.

9 THE COURT: So this is not a motion to dismiss your 10 indictment?

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It is not a motion. It's a 12 praecipe --

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- for dismissal with prejudice
15 based on the authority and UCCs, which are still unrebutted.

16 THE COURT: Did I understand at one time you were a 17 lawyer?

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I am a lawyer. I was at one time
19 an attorney, a licensed, barred attorney.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And during that time, didn't you
21 always as a lawyer file motions requesting orders, and the 22 court issued those orders?

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: As a barred, licensed --

24 THE COURT: That's a pretty simple answer.

25 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- attorney? No. As a barred,

1 licensed attorney, when I worked for the government, there were 2 motions, there were pleadings, there was a lack of 3 understanding, basically, an incompetency, which were just -- 4 it's in ignorance.

5 However, when I canceled my bar license and worked
6 with the judges and DOJ at the time, it was the praecipe
7 that -- you have to have standing to be able to do a praecipe.
8 So that's what we have here. My standing has -- and authority
9 has already been supplied to everybody in this room. And 10 that's what this praecipe is.

11 THE COURT: And when you say you have to have 12 standing to file a praecipe, what's the legal authority for 13 that statement? Where do you find something that says you have 14 to have standing to file a praecipe?

15 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, if I'm commanding someone,
16 it's the judgment that I provided you in the UCC. It's a
17 perfected, registered, and duly noticed, and secured judgment
18 that was done five years ago in 2012.

19 THE COURT: What's the judgment? What's it entitled?

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The judgment -- well, the 21 declaration of facts, is that the document that you're 22 referring to?

23 THE COURT: You prepared a declaration of facts, and 24 you consider that a legal judgment?

25 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. There was a declaration of 1 facts. In 2012, a foreclosure occurred, not just on the 2 corporation called the United States of America, but also on 3 every single corporation, private corporations, operating under 4 the guise of government. So all of those corporations were 5 actually closed and terminated. And that was with the 6 assistance and the help of those in the Department of Justice,

7 those in the federal and state courts here, as well as 8 internationally.

9 THE COURT: Do you have a document entitled
10 "Judgment"?

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The UCC, under the UCC, there is 12 no -- you don't need a courtroom for a judgment. In fact, 13 most --

14 THE COURT: I didn't ask about a courtroom. You kept 15 saying that you have a judgment.

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It's a perfected judgment. There
17 was no rebuttal of the declaration of facts. And DOJ, as well
18 as the U.S. Secretary of Treasury, the Secretary of Commerce,
19 Secretary of State, everybody was notified, as well as IMF,
20 IRS, Counsel of Privy -- Privy's Counsel, everybody involved,
21 World Bank, United Nations, you have Secret Service. Everybody
22 was involved in that foreclosure back in 2012 and 2013.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: So when it went unrebutted, it's a
25 matter of law at that point. A declaration unrebutted stands

1 as law.

2 And it was entered into the Uniform Commercial Code,
3 which is a notification system, and that is actual due notice.

4 However, there were courtesy copies and courtesy
5 notices, personal service done around the world on top of that.

6 THE COURT: All right. I've read all that. And not
7 one of those things was what I asked you.

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You asked me about my authority.

9 THE COURT: I did not ask you that. You keep saying
10 that. I've never asked you that.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You asked me if I could command
12 you.

13 THE COURT: That was way back.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay.

15 THE COURT: If you will actually listen -- if you
16 want to go ahead and finish your speech, I'll listen to it.

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No, that's all right. Please --

18 THE COURT: But whenever you're ready to answer my 19 questions, if you'll just listen to them, most of them are yes
20 or no or very specifically focused.

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. Please repeat your 22 question.

23 THE COURT: Yes. You referenced a judgment
24 repeatedly.

25 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yes.

1 THE COURT: What document is that judgment?

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That judgment was actually the 3 declaration of facts, which I provided to everyone. It is
4 Document 201 -- 2012127810.

5 Here, I'll read it from here so that it's quicker for 6 you.

7 THE COURT: I don't want you to read it. I just --

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. Just the judgment numbers.
9 You asked me what the judgment was. I'm giving you actual 10 numbers.

11 So, again, 2012127810, 2012127854, 2012127907, and 12 2012127914, along with the commercial bill, which is number
13 2012114586, and the true bill, which is 2012114776.

14 That is the actual complete judgment that is 15 commercially perfected in -- that was the one I'm referring to.

16 THE COURT: And what are those numbers?

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Those are Uniform Commercial
18 Code -- it's the UCC registration numbers from the actual 19 foreclosure that was done with all the parties therein named.

20 THE COURT: So is it the UCC financing statement that 21 you filed that you consider a judgment, or is it the 22 declaration of facts that you prepared that you consider a
23 judgment?

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. Actually, it goes all the way
25 back to the perpetuity, which would be the -- that was actually

1 done with members of the U.S. Treasury and the Federal Reserve.
2 That was UCC Doc No. 2000043135.

3 That was a perpetuity filing at that time, and it was 4 a UCC-1. That was done in May 4th, 2000 -- and that, these --
5 the documents that I told you about for the declaration of 6 facts lists every single document that were amendments to that 7 perpetuity done in 2000. That's never been rebutted to this
8 day. And it was perfected --

9 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to ask you one last 10 time, and then I will proceed, and I will note that you did not 11 answer the question. Okay?

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I object to that. I have.

13 THE COURT: No, ma'am. You have not. I have asked
14 you, and you get a choice to answer this question or you can go
15 on with a whole bunch of numbers.

16 Is the judgment that you reference the UCC financing
17 statement filings, or is it the declaration of facts that 18 you've prepared?

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Which preparation? I've done a
20 number of declaration facts in this case, or are you talking 21 about the declaration of facts that the judgment actually was?

22 Please clarify that, only because there's a number of 23 declaration of facts.

24 THE COURT: No. You referenced a judgment. I tried 25 to get you to tell me what it was.

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Sure.

2 THE COURT: And you haven't.

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. So the 2000 --

4 THE COURT: You have no document that says "Judgment"
5 on it. Is that correct?

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. The actual filings --

7 THE COURT: Is that yes or no?

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I do.

9 THE COURT: Let me see it. Hand me a document that 10 says "Judgment" on it.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It's dated November 28th. I'm 12 going to hand you my personal copy.

13 THE COURT: I'll be glad to hand it back.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: This is the actual judgment. Oh,
15 I'm sorry, here's two more pages. That's the actual judgment.

16 Just for the record, I've actually already 17 provided --

18 THE COURT: All right. The document you've handed me 19 is entitled in your handwriting at the top, "Declaration of 20 Facts." Is that correct?

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yes. That's my own personal copy, 22 so that's my handwriting.

23 THE COURT: And then -- while you've handwritten on 24 all the stuff you've filed in here as well. Right?

25 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Possibly. But we're referring to

1 the actual judgment. The actual judgment doesn't have my 2 handwriting on it.

3 THE COURT: All right. It -- also, the actual form
4 is "UCC Financing Statement Amendment." Correct?

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: On that particular document, yes,
6 it's an amendment to the perpetuity.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And there is nothing in here --
8 there are copies of that, but there is nothing that says
9 "Judgment." Correct?

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. Inside of there, you will see
11 the word "judgment," however, because it goes unrebutted, it
12 stands -- the declaration unrebutted stands as law. So --

13 THE COURT: I understand your legal theory.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It is not a theory. It's a law
15 and maxim of law.

16 THE COURT: Okay. We'll go ahead and get to that.
17 If you'll hand this back, the Court will make note that there
18 is no judgment in the stack of papers that she gave me.

19 Now, on Page 2 of your filings, your praecipe, you do
20 list a group of maxims of law.

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Maxims of law?

22 THE COURT: Yes. Right?

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I was just -- I thought you said
24 "maximums."

25 THE COURT: Maxims of law.

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yes.

2 THE COURT: And what is your -- where is the legal
3 support for those maxims?

4 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Such as --

5 THE COURT: Like where do you get them?

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- being born from a fraud?

7 THE COURT: Where did you get them from?

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It's universal.

9 THE COURT: You just made them up?

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No.

11 THE COURT: Where did you get them?

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: They're universally accepted.
13 Like, nothing can be born from a fraud.

14 That's something we've used when I was working as a
15 prosecutor for the government, nothing could be born from a 16 fraud.

17 THE COURT: Well, you said, "A declaration un rebutted 18 stands as law."

19 Where did you get that?

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: A declaration un rebutted, those 21 are in almost every court rule book.

22 THE COURT: I couldn't find it anywhere. Where would 23 you find it?

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I'm not sure about Tennessee. I
25 haven't gone --

1 THE COURT: Where would you find it anywhere? In 2 Washington?

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That declaration stands
4 un rebutted?

5 THE COURT: Yeah.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That would be in the court rules
7 typically of any state.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know where?

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I do not know where in the -- 10 Tennessee.

11 However, the rules, that's part of the thing is with 12 the declaration of facts, the actual judgment that was 13 perfected back in 2012, it was never rebutted.

14 There was foreclosure and a termination, which also 15 means all the policy statutes and codes belonging to that 16 particular entity also is unenforceable. They do not exist.

17 THE COURT: We're not talking about that. We're just 18 talking about maxims of law.

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Uh-huh.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Maxim of law is that which is 22 universally accepted and known to be true.

23 I don't know. Do you believe that something born of 24 a fraud exists?

25 THE COURT: I'm just asking where you got these. You

1 have submitted them, and I ask you --

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: They are -- they are universal
3 maxims that I have learned and been trained with in law school,
4 as well as in my time as an attorney working for the 5 government, as well as privately working as an attorney, and 6 then also as a lawyer after I canceled my bar license and no
7 longer was a licensed attorney or an attorney.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So what I'm hearing is, even 9 though it's universal, it's everywhere, you know all about it,
10 there's no place I could go and find these?

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I'm sure that we could spend some 12 time and look for them, if you would like. If you want a
13 specific reference, although I assumed everyone here, sitting
14 as an attorney or in this seat, is -- they're presumed to know
15 the law, so as far as the universal maxims, such as nothing can 16 be born from a fraud.

17 THE COURT: All right. Now, if I look over at 18 Page 4, and I -- right after those maxims in your praecipe,
19 it's your contention, first, that, among others, neither Chief
20 Judge Varlan nor I legally exist. Is that correct?

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Actually, I was waiting for proof
22 from you, as well as everyone that was listed inside of the 23 praecipe, and there were two praecipis, so I'm referring to the 24 one on the 29th.

25 THE COURT: Yes. That's the one I have in front of

1 me. It's on Page 4.

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. So we're not on the one
3 from yesterday?

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay.

6 THE COURT: So is that correct, you claim that we do
7 not legally exist?

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: We actually -- from what I
9 understand and from the record, there was a declaration that -- 10 of lack of jurisdiction of yourself of Guyton -- Mr. Guyton,
11 who was at the time in front of me, as well as Cynthia Davidson

13 THE COURT: Just --

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I have not received anything --

15 THE COURT: I did not ask --

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- from you guys.

17 THE COURT: -- about Ms. Davidson. I did not ask
18 about Ms. Svolto. I did not ask about Judge Guyton, did I?

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. To answer your question
20 very specifically and particularly --

21 THE COURT: Yes.

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- I have not received any 23 documented evidence, sworn, validated, and verified by you that 24 you exist, that you actually -- excuse me, you exist as far as 25 being a judge that supposedly works for Eastern Tennessee --

1 Eastern District of Tennessee, for the United States.

2 I haven't received any of that documentation from
3 you. The record is void of it.

4 THE COURT: And do you think I have to give that to 5 you?

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yes, you do.

7 THE COURT: And where is the legal authority?

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: When I assert a declaration of 9 lack of jurisdiction and existence as a legal entity to come in 10 and have authority over me.

11 THE COURT: So if you were to claim I was a zebra, I
12 would have to issue proof that I wasn't?

13 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, that's just a -- I'm not 14 even sure whether the Court is going to be humorous, because 15 you're obviously not a zebra. I see that you are a human being 16 sitting there.

17 I'm saying, what is your authority? What is your 18 authorization? Because you have to be authorized.

19 THE COURT: Were you here at my investiture?

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No, but when was your investiture?

21 THE COURT: If you had been --

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: When was your investiture?

23 THE COURT: Back 16 years ago.

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. So whatever your
25 investiture was, it was inside of the United States

1 corporation. It was terminated. It was foreclosed upon.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So --

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: So that's why I'm asking for 4 everyone's authority, including yours and Judge -- you know,
5 Judge Varlan or the allegedness of that.

6 I don't know. I need to see your authority, your
7 identification, your authorization to actually do all this. I
8 do not have that.

9 THE COURT: I'm just trying to be sure I'm reading
10 this right is all.

11 Did you claim we do not legally exist as judges?

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I do not have any sworn 13 documented, verification, or validation that you legally exist,
14 and have the authority to hold this court or to -- that this 15 court even exists, because I've actually delivered proof to all 16 of you, sworn, documented, verified, validated proof that they 17 do not exist.

18 You as a human being, yes, you do.

19 THE COURT: What I'm looking for is yeses and noes,
20 and then if you want to explain the yes or no, but you go
21 straight off into some bizarre explanation, and I never get an 22 answer.

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, I said I do not have any 24 documentation.

25 THE COURT: I didn't ask you if you have any

1 documentation.

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I don't have any documentation, so
3 therefore, no, you don't.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Your position is we don't legally
5 exist, because you have no documentation. And what
6 documentation would it take to convince you that I legally
7 exist?

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: A sworn -- with your signature and 9 seal, validation, and verification by you, sworn declaration
10 that the United States, first off, exists, that it's lawful,
11 that it's legal, that you actually have the authority, and then
12 I would need to see the authorization from the United States.

13 THE COURT: Then what would you do with all that?

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: If everyone had it, we would have 15 it. We don't. So 2012, 2013, all of this --

16 THE COURT: So, really, all that is --

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It would actually trump, wouldn't 18 it? It would trump that declaration of facts and judgment that 19 actually stands as a judgment as a matter of law under the 20 Uniform Commercial Code.

21 THE COURT: Well, first off, we can dispense with 22 that. Filing a UCC financing statement does not translate into 23 a judgment. Number one, that is contrary to the law.

24 Number two, a UCC financing statement doesn't even 25 have that potential.

1 And, number three, you have absolutely no legal basis
2 for claiming it.

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Actually, I accept your statements
4 as proof of either, number one, your ignorance or --

5 THE COURT: That's fine.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- a collusion at this point.

7 THE COURT: Well, we'll get into that in just a
8 second.

9 If I understand, you also claim that we do not have 10 authority or jurisdiction of this criminal action. Is that 11 correct?

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I have no documentation that 13 there's authority or jurisdiction over this action. So 14 therefore, no, I do not have proof of that.

15 THE COURT: I understand you don't have proof of 16 that.

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: If there is no proof of that, then 18 my position is actually validated and verified here in this 19 courtroom right now.

20 THE COURT: You claim that we do not have authority
21 or jurisdiction of this action, true or false?

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: True. I've declared that since
23 D.C. And I still have not been provided. If you had it, you'd 24 show it.

25 THE COURT: And you claim that you do not have -- we

1 do not have authority or jurisdiction over you or Mr. Beane?

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I have declared that you don't
3 have jurisdiction over me.

4 According to the record, Mr. Beane has declared you
5 don't have jurisdiction over him.

6 And the burden of proof shifts to you and to Anne
7 Svolto -- Anne-Marie Svolto and Cynthia Davidson.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You have not met your burden.

10 THE COURT: Is it your position that that is true
11 only as to you and Mr. Beane, or is that true as to everyone?

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That particular judgment, which I
13 gave you, which according -- under the Uniform Commercial Code
14 and common law --

15 THE COURT: No. My question --

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It is absolutely a perfected
17 judgment, so that means everyone in this room is no longer a
18 citizen of a private corporation, nor are they an employee of a 19 private corporation --

20 THE COURT: Okay. Does --

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- operating under the guise of 22 government.

23 THE COURT: Does that mean that your position is that 24 not only do Judge Varlan and I not have any authority or 25 jurisdictions over you and Mr. Beane, but we don't have

1 authority over anyone?

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You know, can I just ask for a
3 clarification here? Because it feels like I'm giving legal 4 advice at this point.

5 THE COURT: I'm not asking for legal advice.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I've made a declaration that
7 nobody has authority or jurisdiction over me. At that point --

8 THE COURT: Right.

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- the burden shifts to those that 10 declare or that assert that they do.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I haven't received that. That's 13 what I'm saying.

14 THE COURT: Well, I'm asking you if your argument is 15 limited to you --

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I have no argument. I made a
17 declaration. There's a difference.

18 THE COURT: -- if -- your position is true only as to 19 you, or is it true as to everyone in the courtroom and outside
20 the courtroom?

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: My declaration, not position -- I
22 corrected it to declaration -- is everybody on this planet has 23 been taken out of the employment and the citizenship or the 24 ownership of private corporations operating under the guise of 25 government.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So if I understand that right,
2 then anyone could commit a federal crime and we would not be
3 able to prosecute them. Correct?

4 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Again, these are -- all goes to 5 legal advice, which we -- you and I personally agreed I would 6 not go into.

7 THE COURT: I'm not asking you for your legal advice.
8 I'm asking you, is that part of your position, because I'm 9 trying to figure out how it works. So if it works as to you,
10 and if it works as to everyone --

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: This court is a bank. It's just a 12 bank teller. Okay?

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: This court operates as a banking
15 function.

16 THE COURT: That's my -- that's my point. If this 17 court is just a bank teller, if this court has no jurisdiction,
18 if this court doesn't exist, if this court has been foreclosed
19 on, if all those things are true, then there is no authority in 20 this court to sit in judgment of anybody who commits any 21 criminal offense. Correct?

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Every criminal offense that used
23 to be in the United States Code, which used -- I should say is 24 in the United States Code, which used to be enforceable --

25 THE COURT: Right.

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- they are basically regulations
2 on commerce. Okay?

3 THE COURT: On what?

4 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: My hope -- on commerce.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That's what Congress has the 7 unlimited power to do is regulate commerce.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: My entire last 20 years has been
10 spent to making sure that people such as yourself, Anne-Marie
11 Svolto, and Cynthia Davidson could actually do what we believed 12 we were doing.

13 When I was a prosecutor, I went in there because I
14 believed I was protecting the community. I was protecting that 15 until I ended up at the highest levels of banking trade and 16 finance before --

17 THE REPORTER: Can you please slow down?

18 THE COURT: I'm not interested -- yeah, let's just 19 cut her off. I'm not interested in your biography. I'm simply 20 asking how this -- I'm trying to see how this works.

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yeah. Not a problem.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So --

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It used to be one way, and now I'm 24 putting all my intent that it is another way.

25 THE COURT: In your world, in your idea of how this

1 works, because you think there is no U.S., and I think there
2 is, so in your -- in your declaration and your position, in 3 your theory and your whatever you want to call it, if someone 4 were to rob a bank, okay, could they be prosecuted in court by 5 a prosecutor like these young ladies or by a court like myself
6 or Judge Varlan?

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: If there is authority to do so,
8 then, of course.

9 THE COURT: Is there authority? I thought you said
10 there was no such authority.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You gave me a hypothetical.

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I gave you another hypothetical
14 answer -- or excuse me, the appropriate hypothetical answer
15 was, if there is authority and jurisdiction.

16 THE COURT: But in your position, there is no such in 17 this court.

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: This state of current events --

19 THE COURT: Right.

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- is that essentially all I did
21 was I closed and terminated the fraud. This court used to be 22 operating in a fraud. Okay. It still is until we go in and 23 actually clean things up.

24 It's not -- I get what everyone's intent and hearts
25 are set to, and I agree with you. That was the why things

1 could be taken down.

2 The only thing I took down was the corporate fraud
3 that was occurring called the United States. It was a
4 corporate fraud. That's it.

5 THE COURT: In the name of trying not to commit more
6 fraud, I take it your position then is, if someone robs a bank
7 today and they come in here, I should just tell them I have no
8 authority over them, I don't exist, and they should just go
9 home?

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I'm not going to give you any 11 legal advice of how you should conduct your affairs today.

12 THE COURT: I mean, that would be the ultimate result
13 of what you're proposing.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: At this point, because of where 15 you sit and where I get -- I get where you believe you sit, and 16 I get where everyone actually has that. Right now, this court
17 is not operating lawfully. You are not operating lawfully if 18 you don't have proof of your authority and jurisdiction. I'm 19 not consenting to you having authority and jurisdiction over 20 me. I'm not an employee of a defunct terminated corporation.
21 I'm not a citizen of a defunct corporation.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: But I am here, you are here, and 24 we're all talking underneath -- in our own full responsibility.
25 This is what the restructure is about. This is what the

1 statement is for, is all these funds go to the restructure.

2 THE COURT: I was hoping that at some point in our 3 discussion, you could see the fallacy in your argument or at 4 least your supporters could.

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, I hope that you see the 6 fallacy in your hypothetical.

7 THE COURT: But that is the long and short of your 8 proposition, that people could just go out today and commit any 9 kind of crimes, and there would be no way to prosecute them or 10 to bring them to justice, because by virtue of your foreclosure
11 in your own argument, by virtue of that, we have -- no longer
12 have any authority, we don't exist legally, and we could do
13 nothing with them.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Legally no. Nobody --

15 THE COURT: Okay. So that's my point.

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Nobody legally exists --

17 THE COURT: That's my point. We would have anarchy.

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- in that commercial structure
19 anymore, no.

20 THE COURT: The essence for this, if I understand it
21 is, that you contend that the United States was formerly 22 declared a corporation.

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Formerly? It's Anne-Marie Svolto
24 and Cynthia Davidson said that, and the alleged court clerk's 25 record it says the U.S.A. is the plaintiff. I'm just asking

1 for proof of the existence of the plaintiff.

2 THE COURT: I didn't ask about that. I'll just read
3 your own writing.

4 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It's not a corporation anymore.
5 It is -- it was cited in the United States Code. I gave you
6 that.

7 THE COURT: You said the United States was formerly
8 declared a corporation at 18 U.S. Code Section 3002(15).

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That was only the most recent 10 citing of --

11 THE COURT: That's the only thing you wrote.
12 Correct?

13 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Uh-huh.

14 THE COURT: You understand, don't you, that that cite
15 is just a definitional cite under the Federal Debt Collection
16 Procedure Act, don't you?

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I am very aware of the United 18 States being a corporation after working at the highest levels
19 of bank trade and finance, and that it is actually a
20 corporation that had been operating in fraud.

21 THE COURT: No, ma'am. It is not. And your only
22 reference to it does not even say that, does it?

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I would be happy, because this is 24 a bankrupt -- this was a bankrupt corporation. I actually went 25 in and cleaned up the bankruptcy and it was satisfied. So as

1 far as -- this is all banking.

2 THE COURT: You went in and cleaned --

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: This is all law.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You know, I am completely aware
6 that yourself and others are not aware of the actual current 7 law. I get that.

8 THE COURT: Well, in your mind, I appreciate that you
9 feel that way. What I'm asking you is, the legal cite that you
10 filed doesn't support what you claim. Correct?

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: How does it not support? It was a 12 corporation operating under the guise of government and it was 13 a bankrupt corporation.

14 THE COURT: It doesn't say that at 18 U.S.
15 Code Section 3002(15), does it?

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That was for -- that's for the 17 Fair Debt and Practices Act. Correct?

18 THE COURT: Yeah.

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That is part of the fraud that was 20 committed under the corporation operating under the guise of 21 the government. All we did was correct it. At this point, we 22 do move forward with a true government at this point. This 23 government that we all believe in, I believe in it too. I do
24 not believe in the --

25 THE COURT: Does it have judges?

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- in a fraudulent --

2 THE COURT: Does your government have judges?

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: My government doesn't -- I --
4 right now, I do not have -- subscribe to any corporate
5 government, no.

6 THE COURT: All right. So just --

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: However, as far as we're not going
8 to be creating criminals, like we have been, to be able to feed
9 into the prison systems, which are all money based.

10 There are tons of undercover agents that I even met
11 with while I was in there who have been gathering evidence for 12 over the last five years, as well as marshals that were working 13 as marshals while I was there. This is all stuff that's going 14 to be coming out.

15 I completely respect you, Anne-Marie Svolto, and 16 Cynthia Davidson, Mr. Parker Still, Randy Beane, Steve, and 17 Francis, everyone that's in this courtroom, I respect you all.
18 I'm here because I spent the last 20 years working with those 19 inside the industries to clean this up.

20 I'm saying, yes, we can move forward. Yes, we can 21 have court. We can have different systems, but we are not 22 answering to a banking entity, into the banking families.
23 That's what I'm saying. It's slavery via monetary instruments.
24 And that's the fraud that was stopped.

25 THE COURT: And I guess the long and short of it is

1 simply just because you say it's so doesn't make it so.

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, and --

3 THE COURT: And that's true with everybody.

4 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Everyone, yes.

5 THE COURT: That's true with everybody.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: However --

7 THE COURT: In other words, if I were to issue a
8 declaration saying that, you know, you owed me some money, and 9 you didn't, quote, rebut it within the time I said it, doesn't 10 mean you owe it to me.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, if you gave me a notice that 12 I owed it to you, I would actually absolutely rebut it, because 13 if I don't owe it to you, I don't owe it to you.

14 THE COURT: But if you didn't, you still wouldn't owe
15 it to me --

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, if you gave me notice of 17 it --

18 THE COURT: So if I just made it up out of whole
19 cloth, and I just said, "You owe me a million dollars," and for 20 some reason you didn't rebut it, suddenly you owe me a million
21 dollars, even though --

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That would never happen.

23 THE COURT: -- there was no basis for the debt?

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That would never happen. I would
25 rebut it.

1 THE COURT: But if you didn't?

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I wouldn't -- I would. I would
3 rebut it.

4 THE COURT: Suppose you just blew it off?

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I wouldn't. I would rebut it.

6 THE COURT: Or if anybody did. If I wrote it to 7 Ms. Svolto and she blew it off?

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I'm not responsible for 9 Ms. Svolto. She has to be responsible for her own things.

10 THE COURT: What I'm trying to show you is the 11 fallacy of that argument.

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The fallacy of the argument is 13 actually not telling anyone what their actual positions are 14 legally.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: As far as the legal status, their 17 legal identity, and everything else.

18 THE COURT: Well, I'm trying to do --

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: She's responsible for her own
20 debt. But if you sent it to me, I'm absolutely canceling it, 21 because it's not true.

22 THE COURT: Let's see.

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: May I ask for a clarification, 24 please?

25 THE COURT: I have no idea. I'm just trying to do my

1 job. And my job --

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That's what I'm asking.

3 THE COURT: -- which may not exist in your mind
4 anyway, but for everybody else in the world, my job is to rule
5 on motions that are filed in front of me.

6 And the way I -- and I understand every judge does
7 that, is to read the motion to see what the allegations are, to 8 see what the supporting law is, and to see what the other side
9 says in response to it, and then make a decision. That's what 10 we do. We do it day in and day out. Every judge in this 11 country has been doing it for hundreds of years.

12 And all I'm trying to do is go through that same
13 process with you by asking you what is the basis for these 14 various arguments. I've highlighted them. I've read
15 everything you filed. And I can't get you to stay with me on 16 that.

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, I have a clarification for 18 you --

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- which possibly might help here.

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay.

23 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: There is a contrite ignorance,
25 from the moment that we go to law school, as far as what the

1 law is, a true bill, for instance, can only be issued by the 2 original issuer.

3 So, for instance, there is an ignorance, not just
4 within this court, but within the whole entire legal industry,
5 everywhere that someone else can actually charge me or do a
6 true bill against me.

7 THE COURT: So no one --

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Or anybody.

9 THE COURT: Excuse me. Let me see if I understand
10 that, because I've never heard that law.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It's not a law. It's a matter of 12 fact as far as what paperwork goes from this courtroom through 13 the clerk's office.

14 THE COURT: No, no, no. You said no one can issue a
15 true bill against you except who, yourself?

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It's like someone trying to write
17 a check for me, signing my name, only they don't sign my name, 18 they try to get my signature in another way. That's what the 19 fingerprinting and the photo IDing is in the courthouse.

20 We actually at the highest level of banking trade and 21 finance, we actually have to have all that documentation. If 22 you send us a judgment, a conviction without having the 23 thumbprinting and the -- or the fingerprinting and the photo ID
24 along with the indictment, there is no charge. I'm talking
25 from a banking level.

1 No matter what happens here today, and the only thing
2 I'm going to be able to do is to be able to accept all of your
3 statements as proof of ignorance. And I will state that with 4 all due respect, it is contrived, it is designed to have that 5 ignorance be present.

6 THE COURT: Okay. So --

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: However, at the banking level,
8 this is what this is about. Right now, every minute that we 9 discussed, because, mind you, with a praecipe, there is no --
10 it is not subject to discussion or merit. It is just entered,
11 and then later on, if they come back and they have proof --
12 because right now, the record is void, completely void of any 13 sworn documentation, validation, and verification that the 14 United States, the alleged plaintiff, exists. There is proof
15 that it doesn't exist, but there is no proof that it does
16 exist.

17 So unless you guys come forward with your proof of 18 authority, authorization, and jurisdiction, dated from 19 March 2013 onward, there is none.

20 THE COURT: Do you accept the United States
21 Constitution?

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The constitution used to exist.
23 It was actually canceled within the foreclosure. And that -- a 24 constitution is actually a contract. And, no, I've never been 25 a signatory to that contract.

1 However, when I was a licensed, barred attorney,
2 before I was made aware of it, yes, I did swear to uphold the
3 constitution. However, it's a contract. I'm not a signatory
4 to it. Are you?

5 THE COURT: So if I -- I'm trying to figure out, you
6 keep saying you haven't given me any authorization. You
7 haven't given me any documentation. If my support for my
8 position was the United States Constitution and duly ratified
9 laws of the United States Congress, would that be sufficient?

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. It would have to come from 11 the Attorney General, who is Jeff Sessions at the moment.
12 Okay. He would have to validate and verify that the United 13 States Constitution is lawful.

14 THE COURT: And would you accept that if he did?
15 Would you accept then that the United States Constitution is 16 law?

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: If I had sworn verification and 18 validation.

19 THE COURT: Right.

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: With his signature and seal.

21 THE COURT: What's a seal?

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: His seal, it would be his 23 signature and then the biometric seal.

24 THE COURT: What's a biometric seal?

25 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: For every single --

1 THE COURT: What's a biometric --

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Biometric seal is a biometric
3 identification similar to the fingerprints.

4 THE COURT: So he has to put his fingerprint on 5 there?

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That's a biometric seal. It's the 7 same ones that the U.S. Marshals required, same ones you
8 required.

9 THE COURT: No, ma'am, I don't. Because what I'm 10 asking is, you know, for 16 years people have been going to 11 prison, I've been making rulings, I'm --

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I know.

13 THE COURT: -- doing a trial right now. My 14 fingerprint doesn't exist on any of those, neither does any 15 judges'. So in your mind --

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Actually, didn't you do
17 fingerprinting when you took your bar card?

18 THE COURT: I don't put them on my orders.

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No, but you did it for your bar
20 card. Right?

21 THE COURT: Well, somebody probably took my
22 fingerprints at some point. No, I don't think I ever did
23 anything for a bar.

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You didn't do any fingerprinting
25 whatsoever for background checks or anything like that in order

1 to take the bench?

2 THE COURT: I don't -- oh, to take the bench was 3 different, yeah.

4 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. So that is part of the 5 United States corporation when it legally existed and as it
6 functioned. Everyone is required to give their thumbprints. I
7 know for the FBI when I became a prosecutor for the United
8 States --

9 THE COURT: That's not my point. You said Jeff
10 Sessions would have to send something with his fingerprint on 11 it.

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yeah. I don't have Jeff
13 Sessions' -- his biometric seal. Either that or he could be 14 personally here and swear --

15 THE COURT: Do you understand there is nothing, other 16 than your claim, that says anybody has to file anything with 17 their fingerprint on it? You're the only person who claims 18 that.

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Actually, that's what --

20 THE COURT: And I realize we're all -- I understand
21 that we're all contrived ignorant, but there is nothing that 22 says that's the law, that that's required, or that any of that 23 has to be done, except you. You just write it repeatedly, and 24 then in your mind it becomes the law.

25 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. Actually, it is inside of

1 every single position that you take. When you do a background
2 check, you have to provide your fingerprints.

3 THE COURT: I didn't ask that. You said for him to 4 file something that has his fingerprint, his biometric seal
5 would have to be on it.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, then he can give me the one
7 that he supposedly gave to the United States corporation when 8 he took his position. But that is a seal.

9 And everyone here has required -- I don't know how 10 many times I was required, which I gave without prejudice and 11 under duress, my fingerprints, was to check me in to every 12 single hotel that the U.S. Marshals put me through on that 13 30-day tour. So I'm not asking for anything that isn't 14 actually asked for.

15 In fact, now, even in banking, you have to go in.
16 It's all a matter of banking. It's not a matter of law. It
17 never has been. It's all a matter of banking. But you do
18 actually fulfill those requirements. You just stated you did
19 when you took the bench.

20 THE COURT: Are you aware that the district courts,
21 like this one, have original jurisdiction over all criminal
22 offenses against the laws of the United States by statute?

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: When was that statute made and 24 entered?

25 THE COURT: I don't know. 18 U.S. Code Section 3231,

1 I'm sure you're aware of that, having gone to law school.

2 Right?

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: When was that actually entered?
4 My point is, unless it's dated after March 13th -- excuse me,
5 March 18th, 2013, along with a newly issued constitution and 6 everything, I know they've already tried to reincorporate. All
7 of our people at BIS, they've tried to reincorporate the 8 corporation, but they could not.

9 THE COURT: So your position is that, even though
10 that's been the law of the land since the founding of the 11 country, if it hasn't been redone since you filed your 12 financing statement, it's no good, it's not good law, the 13 district courts do not have original jurisdiction over all the 14 criminal offenses against the United States?

15 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, the court never had original
16 jurisdiction -- or the United States is only a ten square mile,
17 if you've been to D.C. And then as far as branching it out,
18 that's where the fraud has occurred under the old statutes.
19 I'm saying that at this point, the federal corporation does not
20 exist. I have not received any sworn documentation rebutting
21 any of that to prove that it does exist.

22 And, you know, we're all having a conversation here,
23 but none of it actually counts, only because we still have not
24 received the authority, sworn declaration, sworn documentation,
25 verified and validated by you or Anne-Marie Svolto or Cynthia

1 Davidson stating your authority and jurisdiction, so therefore,
2 we're just having a conversation here.

3 I'm more than willing to accept this. And if you
4 accept documentation that you would like me to review and 5 decide whether to accept or reject --

6 THE COURT: But it has been --

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: But I don't have any.

8 THE COURT: It has been provided to you. That's the 9 point.

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: When was it provided, because I
11 have not received any? I don't know.

12 Has elbow counsel for Randy Beane received any?
13 Because maybe I'm just missing it.

14 THE COURT: Yeah, you did. It's cited in their 15 brief, and it's in the statute.

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Which none of those statutes, none
17 of those codes actually exist. They were part of the old
18 corporation offered under the guise of the government.

19 THE COURT: That's what I'm saying. It was provided
20 to you. Here it is. Here's the law that everybody in this 21 United States operates under. And it tells you that the 22 district courts of the United States shall have a original
23 jurisdiction, and you say that's just not right.

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. Because these belong to the 25 federal corporation, which was closed. And I do not have any

1 documentation that the federal corporation -- that there is 2 another federal corporation, because the other one was 3 terminated and foreclosed.

4 So unless you show me where the United States
5 actually exists with the legal documentation of a legal entity,
6 these codes mean nothing. In fact, they're only just proof of 7 collusion at this point.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: We have proof of collusion. And 10 at the same time for me, while -- thank you, very much. It may 11 be proof of collusion, I believe it's a matter of -- and I say
12 this with all due respect, you guys, because I was in the same
13 spot till I worked with DOJ -- with those in DOJ, and the FBI,
14 U.S. Marshals, World Bank, Federal Reserve, and everybody else,
15 this is a banking structure. It's a corporate structure for a 16 reason.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Or it was. That was what was 19 terminated and closed. I am -- have you -- are you in receipt
20 of the Declaration of Statement of Assessments? That's 21 Document 55.

22 THE COURT: Is that the one where you claim some 23 people in this court system, maybe me included, owe you $46
24 quintillion?

25 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Oh, I see where the -- no, this is

1 not you directly.

2 THE COURT: Oh, good.

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Or to anyone here.

4 THE COURT: Good.

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: This is the amount that is 6 running, and actually since 901, it's been doubled and 7 compounded.

8 THE COURT: So, like, we're up to 92 quintillion? I
9 probably don't have that.

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, this has to do with the 11 Federal Reserve and Bank for International --

12 THE COURT: They probably don't have that.

13 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: They don't. They're trying to 14 create it like mad. That's what September 15th was about.

15 THE COURT: Well, let's move on a second.

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: As long as you are noticed that 17 this is existing, you've received it. Has Anne-Marie --

18 THE COURT: I'd just tell you to be careful -- I'd 19 just tell you to be careful about some of your filings, and 20 Mr. Lloyd can advise you of that, that, you know, there's other 21 statutes that obviously you will not agree exist, but,
22 unfortunately, the rest of the country and this court and the 23 prosecution -- prosecutors and the marshals and ultimately the 24 Bureau of Prisons will deem exist, that make it a crime to file
25 certain things against judges --

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Oh --

2 THE COURT: -- false filings. So just -- all I'm 3 saying is just be careful.

4 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, I just want to make a
5 clarification for everyone's peace of mind but also for the 6 record. These are not liens against anybody in this
7 courthouse, in this room at all, or in your personal positions
8 at all. These are actually going towards the entities that are 9 committing the fraud that have not gone into actually 10 explaining any of this to you, but literally that you are --

11 THE COURT: All right. So if I understand -- I'm 12 trying to put all this together and figure it out.

13 One of the problems I have is, you're claiming that 14 none of these laws really exist, authority doesn't exist in 15 either the courts or the statutes, but the whole basis for your 16 claim is based on the legal authority of the UCC?

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: My legal authority is I'm here,
18 I'm existing. I'm proving and have proved and giving you
19 documentation that I exist.

20 THE COURT: The claim that you foreclosed on the 21 United States.

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, that's aside from this
23 moment. Right now I gave you actual documentation. The record
24 is void of any kind of documentation provided by any of you
25 stating your identification, your authority, your authorization

1 to actually present to the United States.

2 THE COURT: We've heard that. We've heard that
3 repeatedly. You don't have to say it again. It's in the 4 record. Okay? I'll give it to you.

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, I do have to say it. Can I
6 have it? Do you have it for me?

7 THE COURT: It's -- my -- it's my question that's on 8 the table. Is the genesis of your basis that the UCC exists?

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No, the UCC was closed.

10 THE COURT: UCC was closed.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It was terminated on March 18th,
12 2013 when the DOJ, Secretary of State, U.S. Treasury, and other
13 international equivalents --

14 THE COURT: So you're --

15 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- could not rebut. Everything
16 was accepted, duly accepted, and that is the other filings that 17 were included in the declaration of facts. It was all 18 terminated, including the United States Code, including the 19 United States of America as a corporation operating under the 20 guise of government.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That's the one that was closed,
23 just so you know.

24 THE COURT: So the UCC filing that you made, do I
25 understand that you think that that foreclosed on things like

1 the Federal Reserve bank and the United States. Is that right?

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I know it removed them as
3 custodians. They were left as facilitators so that everything
4 could be repurposed. However, we had a number of people going
5 in and doing their own agendas at that point and created a
6 vacuum, so --

7 THE COURT: But you've said they were foreclosed on.

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: They were all duly, legally, and 9 lawfully foreclosed upon using the same exact procedures that 10 are used all over the United States.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And so who owns the Federal 12 Reserve bank now?

13 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The Federal Reserve bank has been 14 inside of BIS the entire time.

15 THE COURT: Inside what?

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The bank, Federal Reserve Bank?

17 THE COURT: Yeah. Did you say DIS?

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It's called Bank for International
19 Settlements.

20 THE COURT: BIS.

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yeah. BIS.

22 THE COURT: And where is the Bank for International
23 Settlements?

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Excuse me?

25 THE COURT: Where is the Bank for International

1 Settlements? Who is that?

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Bank for International Settlements
3 is the central bank of all the central banks, or it was.

4 THE COURT: Where is that?

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That's in Switzerland.

6 THE COURT: So Switzerland owns --

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Who owns the Federal Reserve Bank
9 and the FDIC and all the other banks?

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, the FDIC is closed. It's 11 only open -- all these corporations only exist as a matter of 12 bookkeeping only.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Ledgering.

15 THE COURT: So who owns the Federal Reserve Bank?

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The Federal Reserve Bank?

17 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Everyone on the planet owns it 19 equally.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And so --

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Pursuant to those filings.

22 THE COURT: And I understand that your filings said
23 that each person was entitled to $6 billion as a result of that 24 filing. Is that right?

25 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No, it's not.

1 THE COURT: It's not?

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No, it's stated incorrectly.

3 THE COURT: Oh.

4 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Everyone -- everyone's state of 5 body, which would be their actual -- their bodies, and those 6 are under the ownership and care of each individual.

7 As far as the 5 billion -- according to the 8 commercial bill and the true bill, there is 5 billion in pre --

9 THE REPORTER: I'm sorry? Pre-19?

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Sorry. Pre-1933 gold and silver, 11 which is the lawful money or was the lawful money of the United 12 States, and that's what was duly secured, registered, and 13 noticed.

14 THE COURT: So what I'm --

15 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: So it's actually 10 billion for 16 every prejudice since March 13th, 2013 -- excuse me,
17 March 18th, 2013, every prejudice done towards you, towards 18 anyone, and that includes having you sit on a bench, serving a 19 private interest other than doing the job that you truly have 20 believed that you've been doing this entire time, it's 21 10 billion ledgered each time, which is why the economies are 22 in the state they are. It's actually ledgered through BIS.

23 THE COURT: Okay. So every -- every one of us in 24 this courtroom is entitled to $10 billion?

25 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I'm not sure what your accounts

1 are at this time. Like I gave you --

2 THE COURT: At least.

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I gave you an example of what just 4 this case -- these alleged cases alone --

5 THE COURT: I'm looking at your filing. I'm looking 6 at your filing back in 2012.

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yeah. That was notice and 8 security for every single being on this planet --

9 THE COURT: Right. Have you --

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- that when there's a
11 prejudice --

12 THE COURT: Have you gone and gotten yours, your 13 5 billion?

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Everything is ledgered over to 15 BIS. So, yes -- and I was actually given the -- I was, until I
16 was threatened and said that I could only use mine and a small 17 group of my friends, but they didn't want the word out to 18 anybody else, because too many people were --

19 THE COURT: So you've gotten yours, but nobody else
20 can get --

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. I rejected everything.

22 THE COURT: We don't --

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I rejected everything. If 24 everyone is to have access to their accounts, you have 25 accounts --

1 THE COURT: That was magnanimous of you to give up
2 your 5 billion because everybody else couldn't get it, huh?

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I have much more. These are 4 ledgered accounts.

5 And I know that you are making fun of things right
6 now, but I'm being very, very serious right now. And I spent
7 20 years of my life to make sure the fraud and slavery stopped.

8 THE COURT: I was interested to see if there was 9 anything to your argument. And that's why I asked you the 40
10 questions before this --

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I don't have argument --

12 THE COURT: -- because once you --

13 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- I have declaration.

14 THE COURT: Once you have no concept of the law in my 15 mind, then all this other stuff has no moment and no merit. I
16 wanted to see if you would agree with the basic principles of 17 law and the statute and the constitution. And if you did, then 18 I would have to say, "Wow, maybe I ought to look at this." But 19 once I heard you say that -- you know, all the things you said,
20 then it pretty well confirmed to me, and here's why. Let me --

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I'm sorry. I didn't understand
22 that last piece. Could you please repeat it?

23 THE COURT: No. Did you -- let me ask you this.
24 Maybe this will help you. Did you study the UCC in law school?

25 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yes, I did.

1 THE COURT: And you are aware, then, that the UCC is 2 not a law?

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The UCC, as I stated earlier, the 4 United States Commercial Code.

5 THE COURT: Right.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Is just a regulation of uniform
7 registration system, a notification system. That's what it is.

8 THE COURT: My point is, it doesn't exist. You
9 understand that.

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: United States Commercial Code does 11 not exist?

12 THE COURT: It's not called the United States
13 Commercial Code, is it?

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The UCC that you're referring to, 15 the notification system --

16 THE COURT: Uh-huh. Right.

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- or the actual regulations?
18 Which one are you speaking of?

19 THE COURT: I'm talking about the UCC that you have 20 referenced throughout every document that you have filed. You
21 are aware that that is not a law. That is a group of people
22 who got together and put together a proposed set of uniform
23 laws that the various states of the United States might choose 24 to adopt so that we might have some uniformity between the 25 states.

1 And each state, like Tennessee, adopts its own
2 version of the UCC, and changes whatever terms it wants to, so
3 that each state has its own version of the UCC, but there is no
4 law, per se, called the UCC.

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I'm aware of that.

6 THE COURT: Okay. So.

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: UCC is a notification system or 8 was a notification system.

9 THE COURT: No. Each state has a version of the UCC
10 with a notification system. Correct?

11 There is no UCC notification system, is there?

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Then what are the actual filings
13 that they are doing? That is them filing whatever property or 14 claims that they believe that they have or positions that they 15 have.

16 It is a -- it was a notification system, and each
17 state -- I agree with you, each state had its own versions that 18 they've adopted and that they used.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That is absolutely correct as 21 to --

22 THE COURT: So what you just referenced, the UCC and 23 a number, like UCC 301, there is no such thing. There's a
24 proposal for a Section 301, but there's no law. There's no UCC
25 301, is there?

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: There's going to be a lot of 2 bankers, and even your court clerk is going to be very upset to 3 hear that. Because everything that you guys do is entered into
4 the -- or was entered into the UCC --

5 THE COURT: Nothing I do -- no, ma'am. Nothing I do
6 is entered into the UCC. Nothing. Because it doesn't exist.
7 If you would cite me --

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I agree with you that it --

9 THE COURT: -- to a statute where it exists, I will 10 look it up, and we will show everybody.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Is that a United States Code?

12 THE COURT: Yeah. Well this has the code at the 13 back, yeah. Where is it? It's not in there. It was put 14 together by a group of private groups, like the American Law
15 Institute. You know that. You learned that in law school.

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I did. I've had to work with --

17 THE COURT: You just made this stuff up. There is no
18 UCC 301.

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. I didn't make it up.

20 THE COURT: There's no UCC 103, is there?

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I did not make anything up. These 22 are actually common law -- common law principles.

23 THE COURT: So here we have --

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The UCC is utilized by every 25 single system and function from the U.S. corporation when it

1 was in a function of a corporation. Now there is no
2 corporation. What I'm saying is, everything goes forward
3 exactly as we all designed.

4 THE COURT: So here we have the Tennessee version.

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Of what? I'm sorry, I can't see 6 that far.

7 THE COURT: Of the commercial transactions. And 8 there's a 47-3-301, because that's how Tennessee chose to 9 codify --

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Everyone -- which is why in the 11 filings what we've -- I handed forward, the actual declaration
12 of facts, which came up to judgment due to nonrebuttal, it
13 actually states that all national and international 14 equivalents --

15 THE COURT: Your whole basis --

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: All state and international 17 equivalent. So it's whatever equivalent Tennessee would have 18 to that particular recording, they've all been honored there.

19 THE COURT: My point is, you understand they're all 20 different.

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That's why the filings are written 22 the way they are, United States federal government, United 23 States state of, and any and all international and universal
24 equivalents, it's the same thing.

25 THE COURT: And the whole basis, like I'm looking at

1 your financing statement --

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: So your Tennessee Code you just 3 referenced there had been included because of the actual 4 language.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: And, again, I -- at this point, as 7 far as I still have not received, while we've been sitting here
8 for however long, these amounts that are being ledgered,
9 everyone's had notice of them.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: All of that. What I'm asking from 12 you is, do you have for me, because I'd be more than willing to 13 accept it at this point, so I'm going to ask for the final
14 time, because it's already been asked in writing quite a few 15 times, do you, C. Clifford Shirley, and Anne-Marie Svolto, and 16 Cynthia Davidson, and Parker Still, because he was included in 17 that as well, as well as the alleged court clerk and her
18 deputies, do you have for me today, any sworn documentation
19 validating and verifying your authority, your identification,
20 your authorization from the actual United States --

21 THE COURT: Number one --

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- for me to go forward and prove 23 in validation, verification that the laws that you are 24 claiming, that myself and Mr. Beane have violated are actually
25 lawful? Do you have that for me from Jeff Sessions?

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

1 THE COURT: I do not have that for you from Jeff
2 Sessions.

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Number one. Number two, you are not
5 entitled to that.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Under what basis?

7 THE COURT: Number three, even if I produced it, you
8 wouldn't accept it. You've just said it.

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I did not.

10 THE COURT: Yes, you did.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I said that I --

12 THE COURT: When I said --

13 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I started out that way, I'm more 14 than willing to accept anything that you have for me to 15 review --

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- for acceptance and rejection.
18 So you're telling me you don't have it --

19 THE REPORTER: Excuse me, excuse me.

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yes?

21 THE REPORTER: For acceptance of what?

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Sorry. For acceptance to review.
23 I would accept it to review for acceptance of rejection -- I
24 don't know what's going to be handed to me.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: But I'm more than willing to 2 receive, to accept whatever you're going to hand me for further
3 review, for acceptance, eventual acceptance or rejection,
4 depending on what you give me.

5 THE COURT: I have determined that based on what 6 you've said, that my official and formal appointment from the 7 United States government would not be acceptable to you because
8 you've said it doesn't exist, I don't exist.

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: If you want to hand it to me
10 and --

11 THE COURT: No.

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- with your signature and 13 everything, I will definitely look at it.

14 THE COURT: No. I don't have to do that.

15 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I've asked you for that.

16 THE COURT: I understand that.

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You have not provided it to me
18 ever. So I'm asking you for it. And now are you refusing to 19 give it to me?

20 THE COURT: I don't have it for you, nor do I have 21 any signature from Jeff Sessions, nor his fingerprints, nor his 22 biometric seal.

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You asked me earlier, so now
24 you're --

25 THE COURT: I do not have it.

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- you're making fun of me. I am
2 just saying at this point, I do not have anything from you. I
3 would be more than willing to look at -- I've never seen your 4 appointments. I don't know what Tennessee's looks like. If
5 you want to hand that to me, that would be great. Anne-Marie
6 Svolto and Cynthia Davidson --

7 THE REPORTER: I need you to slow down. I cannot 8 type that fast.

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I apologize.

10 THE COURT: When the record -- listen, when the 11 record isn't accurate, in your mind, it will be because you
12 were repeatedly advised to slow down and you wouldn't. I just 13 want that on the record.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I'm not trying to intentionally
15 upset you or to even speak fast, it is just a natural flow for 16 me. So I will consciously make sure that I maintain a pace
17 that you can record. So my apologies for any inconvenience.

18 THE COURT: Now, you filed copies of the indictment
19 and copies of the government's response to those, and you
20 marked all over those that they were basically void. Is that 21 right? And that you --

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Which document are you referring 23 to? Are you speaking to me or to Mr. Beane?

24 THE COURT: To you. Let's see. What are those 25 documents, 48 and, I think, 49 and 53? Do you recognize that?

1 You came and filed those the other day. If you'll look up
2 here.

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I've got 48, Document 48.

4 THE COURT: And you just said that the indictment is
5 duly canceled and void. Is that right?

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. I have Document 50, which 7 was -- that was your --

8 THE COURT: I'm asking you about Document 48, the 9 indictment in this case.

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yes. I have Document 48 and 11 Document 58 in front of me.

12 THE COURT: Okay. And you just marked across them,
13 the indictment, void and duly canceled.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yes, I took a certified copy out
15 from the clerks, because they have the original, so I took it
16 out. They would not give me a redacted -- or excuse me, the 17 unredacted.

18 THE COURT: And is it your position that because you
19 marked on that and put your fingerprint on it, that that makes 20 the indictment void?

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yes. It is my understanding from 22 charging -- my history of charging, charging documents, as well
23 as in the highest levels of bank trade and finance where we 24 receive the actual documentations for monetization -- for the 25 monetization, which this is the only way. Only the true

1 original issuer can actually cancel something. Same as if I
2 write a check. I'm the only one that can actually cancel it.
3 So when I was taken on the 25th --

4 THE COURT: Who's the original issuer of the 5 indictment?

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I am the original issuer of the 7 indictment.

8 THE COURT: You issued this indictment against 9 yourself?

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: This indictment through collusion
11 at the highest levels that actually give you all the rules that 12 you think you're following, or that you have followed, excuse
13 me, that you think are lawful, that is actually how charging 14 documents work, and they are monetized. These are prepared for 15 monetization.

16 So only with the fingerprints and the signature of 17 the actual person that is being indicted, they are the original
18 issuer of that indictment, so nobody goes to jail, nobody goes
19 and gets charged with a crime except by their own consent.

20 This is a voiding of any consent, whether presumed or 21 actual. It's what we call manufactured consent, because 22 informed, knowing, willing, and intentional, that is consent.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: However, the way this document and 25 the way that they conducted themselves is not consent. It's

1 manufactured consent by presumption and threat of force, threat
2 of use of force.

3 So this is just canceling the indictment, which I'm 4 the only one that issued it against myself. So that's why I'm 5 saying, if they want to bring forward the foreman, or if she
6 wants to -- Cynthia Davidson wants to show me her authority,
7 and authorization, and identification to be able to actually
8 issue a charge against me, that's what I'm asking for. I still 9 haven't received it.

10 As of this moment, this record is void of any of 11 those documentations, which were required in order to rebut the 12 declaration that you don't have jurisdiction. Nobody has 13 jurisdiction or authority over me.

14 THE COURT: Okay. You also filed a praecipe,
15 Document 54, just recently, which appears to be an order for 16 dismissal, signed -- signed by you. Is that correct?

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I provided the blank one to 18 everybody that's in this room or parties to this particular 19 case. And then behind that, I did sign one. It would be 20 Page 6 is the one I signed. However, the -- the blank one --
21 so it's proposed -- I signed for my part, because I'm the only
22 one that can give authorization --

23 THE COURT: So if the style of the case is the 24 alleged United States District Court, and the order for 25 dismissal with prejudice is signed by Heather Ann Tucci-Jarraf,

1 your proposal is that you have authority to issue orders in
2 this court?

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, if you actually read this,
4 it's giving you leave to actually file this, to actually --

5 THE COURT: I understand filing it. But I'm asking
6 you, the authority to sign an order you believe rests in you?

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Actually, the authority is stated
8 in here. And this is -- still, I have not received anything as 9 far as your jurisdiction. If there is no jurisdiction
10 established and the burden is on you and it is on Anne-Marie
11 Svolto and Cynthia Davidson, I do not -- there is no authority 12 whatsoever here, so therefore, it's -- the case is dismissed.

13 THE COURT: Did you have authority to sign that 14 order?

15 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I did.

16 THE COURT: And did --

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: And it actually has to be signed
18 by you in order to go forward.

19 THE COURT: Why? It just says all I'm doing is 20 granting you leave to file it.

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well --

22 THE COURT: Not to enter it.

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Exactly. Because I don't have 24 anything from you, any sworn, verified, and validated proof,
25 documentation that you actually have authority over me. And

1 I'm not consenting to you having authority over me. I'm here
2 so that we could resolve this in a very amicable manner.

3 THE COURT: All I'm trying to do is ask you
4 questions. If I could get an answer, it would be so much
5 simpler.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Right now I'm the only one,
7 myself, and I've seen the declarations or the documentation
8 provided by Mr. Beane. Right now we're the only two in this 9 courtroom. He has authority only over himself, I only have 10 authority over myself.

11 MR. BEANE: If I may ask a question?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 MR. BEANE: You referenced on August 29th, in 14 reference back on August 29th, you specifically asked me if I
15 thought I was God in the courtroom.

16 THE COURT: Right. Because you said you were the 17 source of all that is.

18 MR. BEANE: My question to you is, what gives you
19 authority over me in this situation if you aren't God?

20 THE COURT: Is it your position that a judge does not 21 have authority over you when you are alleged to have committed 22 a crime?

23 MR. BEANE: We've asked for that proof of who you 24 are.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. BEANE: That's all we're asking for.

2 THE COURT: All right. And so if I showed you my
3 appointment as a United States magistrate judge, would that 4 suffice for you?

5 MR. BEANE: It would be for my review and also 6 Ms. Tucci-Jarraf's.

7 THE COURT: Well, would that suffice? Because that's 8 what I have.

9 MR. BEANE: Well, we would review it and then our 10 answer would be --

11 THE COURT: Would that suffice for you?

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, I would also need the --

13 THE COURT: If I saw your diploma --

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Only -- it would only be one part 15 of documentation that's required amongst the rest. I would 16 need proof --

17 THE COURT: What's the rest?

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I would need proof that the United 19 States actually exists and is lawful and validated. The only 20 one that can actually do that is --

21 THE COURT: I can't prove that, can I? Because they 22 don't under your theory. As of March 13th, 2013, they don't 23 exist. So how could I prove that?

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: If you -- are you claiming that 25 you work for the United States?

1 THE COURT: Yes, I work for the United States courts.

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. Wouldn't the United States
3 courts, the United States itself, wouldn't that documentation
4 be available to you? I mean, it's the same as working for an
5 employer. Wouldn't they have their articles of incorporation?
6 Wouldn't they have their board resolution giving you authority?
7 That's the stuff that I'm looking for.

8 THE COURT: I do. And I've told you it's in the 9 United States Constitution which gives the -- Congress the 10 authority to set up the courts. I gave you the statute in 11 which Congress took that authority and set up the courts. It
12 specifically sets up this court, and it allows for judges, like 13 myself, and so that's our authority.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. So then all you would need
15 is a declaration from --

16 THE COURT: I don't need to give a declaration.
17 That's the law.

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. What I'm saying is, is from 19 Jeff Sessions, who is the one that actually set up these 20 courts, and DOJ, everyone's underneath him. Correct? He would 21 just have to validate and verify your appointment.

22 THE COURT: He doesn't set up this court. He doesn't 23 give me my authority.

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. Whoever gives you your 25 authority, that's who we would need. And then we need

1 identification of that and their authority.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It's just a -- it's called an
4 evidentiary paper trail, which I know you're very familiar
5 with, as well as they are. We're just saying what's your 6 identification and your authority and your authorization?
7 Whoever gave you the authorization, the same things are 8 required. What is their identification? What is their 9 authority? That's what is needed, a paper trail all the way
10 back to the beginning, otherwise there is no authorization.

11 You would actually -- at that point, everything that 12 has been stated here today without that is just proof of, one,
13 collusion or incompetency.

14 And I don't believe you're an competent gentleman at 15 all. I don't believe Anne-Marie Svolto and Cynthia Davidson
16 are incompetent. I just believe that there has been a lot
17 withheld as far as information and data, and it is all
18 fraudulent.

19 That's what was shut down was just the fraud that was 20 being committed by the banking parts of the systems, which I
21 was completely involved with.

22 So as far as coming in here, this is out of courtesy,
23 because there is none of that documentation that I requested,
24 and you stated you didn't have, and you've indicated that you
25 will not give it to me, period.

1 Anne-Marie Svolto and Cynthia Davidson, as well as 2 Parker Still, and everyone else that's been named in there have 3 remained silent.

4 THE COURT: Let me just be sure, because now, after 5 today's hearing, you may be treading on questionable ground.

6 Do you recognize my authority to issue the release
7 order that I released you on or not?

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: For me, that was a private
9 agreement between you and I.

10 THE COURT: No, ma'am. That was a court order issued
11 by me as the magistrate judge. You either accept that 12 authority or you do not. And if you do not --

13 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I accept it.

14 THE COURT: -- why would I allow you to remain out?

15 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I accepted the agreement, and I
16 still accept --

17 THE COURT: No, it's not an agreement. It's an order
18 from me with all the authority of the United States behind it.
19 Do you accept that or do you not? It's a yes or a no.

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I accepted the order that you did
21 without prejudice, which means all the stuff that isn't there,
22 isn't there. But I am following this order that you and I
23 entered into.

24 THE COURT: You understand you have to comply with 25 the conditions in my court order?

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Have you received any information
2 otherwise that I have not followed everything that you and I
3 signed off on?

4 THE COURT: I didn't ask you about whether you
5 followed them. I asked you did you agree that you must follow
6 them?

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I agreed to see you on that day,
8 and I reconfirm it again this day, that I agree to it, I'm 9 following it.

10 THE COURT: You understand you have to comply with my 11 court order or you don't get to stay out. Correct?

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I told you then and I told you
13 now, I choose to follow that court order because we're going to 14 finish this all amicably, I said until this was disposed of in 15 an amicable way and affinitive way, that I would follow that 16 agreement between you and I -- or that order that was signed
17 off by both of us.

18 THE COURT: Do you agree that I have the authority to 19 issue that order?

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I agree that I gave you consent to 21 issue that order, yes.

22 THE COURT: All right. Give you one last chance.

23 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Without jurisdiction.

24 THE COURT: I'll give you one last chance. Do you
25 agree that I have the authority to issue that order?

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You have the authority to issue
2 that order because I gave you that authority to issue that
3 order.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It is an order I continue to 6 follow until we have a disposition in this case, a final
7 disposition.

8 THE COURT: All right. Do you have anything further
9 to argue with regard to your non-motion? Because you've said
10 it's not a motion. I mean, I'm not being facetious.

11 You specifically made a filing that said your 12 praecipe is not a motion. Correct?

13 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: A praecipe.

14 THE COURT: Right.

15 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: First off, I'm not arguing
16 anything. I have declared.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I have made declarations. They've 19 not been rebutted.

20 THE COURT: All right. It's a declaration, not a
21 motion. You're not asking me to do anything.

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. The praecipe is an order, but 23 the basis for those orders being issued were the declaration of 24 due cause.

25 THE COURT: Okay. But it's not a motion in which you

1 have moved the Court to do anything?

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The addressees on that praecipe
3 were ordered to do the praecipe one.

4 THE COURT: Okay. They'll either do them or they 5 won't. I mean, when you order somebody to do something, they 6 either do it or they don't. So they'll either do it or they 7 won't.

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That's correct. They will do it
9 or they don't. There was a notice that was put in there.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: But the basis for doing those or 12 not was given to everyone, which is the --

13 THE COURT: I got you.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- declaration of due cause.

15 THE COURT: I got that.

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That is the authority that was -- 17 that it's based on.

18 THE COURT: I'm just trying to figure out if I have 19 to do anything. Because when people file a motion, I have to 20 file an order responding to that motion. In this case, there
21 is no motion --

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, I would have filed a motion,
23 but the Court, you yourself, Anne-Marie Svolto, and Cynthia
24 Davidson have not provided proof of jurisdiction or authority,
25 so therefore, I couldn't file any motions.

2 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: And I don't consent, I haven't
3 consented to any authority, other than what you and I just 4 clarified --

5 THE COURT: Well, that would be --

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- in that particular order of 7 detention.

8 THE COURT: That would be an incorrect statement,
9 because I ordered you to have a deadline for today for filing
10 motions. You chose not to file a motion. You could have filed 11 a motion.

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No.

13 THE COURT: No. Everybody does in these cases.
14 The -- all the defendants file motions. Well, not all, but 15 most defendants file motions, and then I rule on them. You
16 chose not to. Instead, you chose to file a praecipe. And you
17 say you can't because you haven't gotten this information from 18 us, but that's just the basis for your choice not to file one.

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: So is it your position that if you
20 don't have jurisdiction and authority over someone in your 21 courtroom that you can order them to file motions?

22 THE COURT: No, ma'am. I have jurisdiction and 23 authority over you and this case.

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: That's your assertion?

25 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

1 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. Then why haven't we had
2 documentation? Because I don't --

3 THE COURT: Because I don't send documentation in the 4 hundreds of cases I have.

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I get that.

6 THE COURT: I don't just send out --

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: How many do you have --

8 THE COURT: -- say, everybody --

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: How many do you have --

10 THE COURT: Can I finish? Because she's not going to 11 get down what you're saying --

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I apologize.

13 THE COURT: -- when you talk over me, like you're 14 doing now.

15 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I apologize. Go ahead.

16 THE COURT: Okay. I don't do that. I don't have 17 every defendant come in here and say, "Now, let me show you my 18 authority. Let me show you where I got appointed. Let me show
19 you this statute that says that -- let me take you back to the 20 constitution where this court system was set up. Let me show
21 you where the Congress then appointed the court."

22 I don't do that. Okay. It's a waste of time,
23 because the fact is, just because you say there is no United 24 States, just because you say it's foreclosed, just because you
25 say it's a corporation doesn't make it so.

1 It would be as if you were to say that my robe was
2 red. Just because you say it doesn't make it so. And if you
3 were to ask for me to send you proof that it was black, I
4 wouldn't have to do that.

5 It's simply legal nonsense, and you've just made it
6 up out of whole cloth.

7 And so if you can show me that I don't have
8 authority, I will be glad to look at that, but until then, no.

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: So are you shifting -- just for 10 clarification, are you saying that you have it and that you've 11 shifted it to me when I'm the one --

12 THE COURT: I'm saying I showed you where my 13 authority came from. It comes from the law. It comes from the 14 Constitution of the United States. It comes from the 15 Congressional acts and the law of the United States. And your 16 response was, "Those don't exist."

17 So we're very simple. I say my law emanates -- my 18 jurisdiction and authority emanates from the law, and you say
19 the law doesn't exist. And you say that based on a filing in 20 which you claim that the law supports you. So that's where 21 we're going to have a problem.

22 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You can say it all day long. But 23 as far as I -- if it is that way, then I would be happy to 24 receive that in a sworn declaration, saying -- verifying and 25 validating your lawful authority that -- your position that you

1 believe you have. I have not received anything.

2 Once I make a declaration, that was just a
3 presumption at best, at most, that you had authority when I was 4 first brought in, and mind you, I didn't come in willingly,
5 knowingly, and intentionally. I was drug in with shackles.

6 THE COURT: No, ma'am. But, see, that's where you're 7 wrong. You just make up legal stuff. There's no presumption.

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I agree with you. There is no
9 presumption.

10 THE COURT: There's a reality.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I just declare that there is no
12 jurisdiction. That was done on the 24th. At that point, the 13 burden shifts to one who declares that -- or that presumes or 14 proffers that they do have jurisdiction. I haven't received 15 any of that.

16 THE COURT: Yes, you have in their response. It
17 says --

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: The response was duly rejected for 19 cause, because --

20 THE COURT: You just wrote on it, "duly rejected for 21 cause." That doesn't mean it's rejected. You can reject it.
22 And you did. And that's fine. You can throw it in the trash.
23 You can put it in a paper shredder. You can do whatever you
24 want with it.

25 I, on the other hand, and this court, accepted it,

1 have read it, and pretty much agree with it. Because it sets
2 out our authority for the courts. It sets it out. It sets out
3 the jurisdiction. You just, quote, duly rejected it. She set
4 it out. So you asked me -- you asked me to give you stuff, and 5 what you will do is duly reject it.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I don't know --

7 THE COURT: Which means nothing.

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I don't know what you're going to 9 hand me.

10 THE COURT: It's legal mumbo jumbo.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: It is not.

12 THE COURT: It doesn't exist in the law, and you know
13 that because you're a lawyer, that there is no way a criminal 14 defendant charged with a criminal defense in this court or any 15 other courts can walk in and write "duly rejected" and "void"
16 on that indictment and walk away from their crime. But --

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Actually, I do a hundred percent
18 know that's how it actually functions, as far as the -- the 19 things that you sent up to the Federal Reserve, the clerks --

20 THE COURT: I send nothing to Federal Reserve.

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: You don't, but the court clerk
22 does --

23 THE COURT: No, she doesn't.

24 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- the clerk of the court. The 25 clerk of the court sends it out, and JP Morgan actually

1 monetizes it. What I'm telling you is, you can present me
2 anything you want all day long.

3 THE COURT: But I'm saying --

4 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I will review it. I will either
5 accept it or reject it. That's how it actually works. I do
6 not have proof of her identity. That's why it was rejected
7 without dishonor.

8 She can re-present it if she just gives me -- I don't
9 have anything with her authorization from Nancy Stallard.
10 Nancy Stallard supposedly hasn't even been reconfirmed by the 11 Senate yet. I mean, there are a lot of issues here.

12 If you want to present me that documentation, but 13 there was nothing -- you brought me in. I told you I do not
14 consent to you having authority over me. I've given you 15 documentation, even before I arrived, of my sole authority, my 16 ownership, and my status, my legal status.

17 And everyone went in, if there was no presumption,
18 great, then my lack of jurisdiction is completely with honor,
19 and it is completely the only thing that exists here right now.

20 I do not have anything from you other than some 21 words. So if you want to put those words down on a piece of 22 paper and sign it with your responsibility or in your position, 23 whatever you want to do, just -- I will take that.

24 Hers was rejected because she -- Ann-Marie Svolto,
25 because she sent me something, it didn't have her

1 identification. It didn't have her authorization from Nancy
2 Stallard. It didn't have Nancy Staller's authorization from
3 whoever appointed her. And like I said, even supposedly Senate
4 hasn't even reconfirmed her yet.

5 THE COURT: Here's where we have the biggest problem,
6 two things. Number one, so many of the facts you alleged are 7 utter falsehoods. They're completely not true. That's number
8 one.

9 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Which ones, I'm sorry?

10 THE COURT: When you said I reported to the Federal 11 Bank.

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I didn't say you. All the 13 documents from the clerk of court --

14 THE COURT: Yeah.

15 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- where do you think that goes?

16 THE COURT: They don't go to any bank.

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Who do they go to?

18 THE COURT: I know where they go.

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. They will go to whoever you
20 send them to. And then from there, it's sent to another, and 21 then from there, it's sent to another. But I can tell you they 22 end up at the Federal Reserve. And JP Morgan Bank is actually
23 the ones who usually -- we call them prison bonds is the street
24 term, but they are securities.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Number two, I think I'm now

1 getting where our real disconnect is. You want all of us to 2 submit all this authorization, validation, everything, because
3 you think that you have to consent to being prosecuted. And 4 unless we show you our authority, validation, justification,
5 identification, you aren't in a position to consent.

6 The point is, you don't get to consent.

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Under what authority?

8 THE COURT: Most criminal defendants are in here
9 against their consent. They don't want to be prosecuted. And 10 they don't want to go to prison.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Well, that's where the disconnect
12 has been in the legal system --

13 THE COURT: Right.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- is that there is no consent.
15 And people when they do say that they cancel any consent that's 16 manufactured --

17 THE COURT: That's my point that your argument --

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: We're sending people to jail that 19 haven't consented.

20 THE COURT: Can I finish? Your argument would mean
21 for everybody out there, I can go rob a bank, I can go assault
22 anybody, I can break in Ms. Jarraf's house, take all your 23 belongings, and then simply say to the police, "You don't have 24 any authority, and you can't take me to court, because I don't 25 consent. And, Ms. Prosecutor, you can't prosecute me. And,

1 Mr. Judge, you can't sentence me, because I don't consent. I'm
2 going to go back out and do more of it, because I don't
3 consent. And if you file anything, I will write 'duly
4 rejected,' and then you have to let me go."

5 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. That is not what I'm saying.

6 THE COURT: That is exactly what you're saying.

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. That is not what I'm saying.

8 It's similar to Mr. Parker Still, I understand where the call
9 came down to have me arrested. I understand where that came 10 from. I know where that came from. Okay. I haven't committed 11 any crimes. If anything, I have a 20-year history of stopping
12 crimes from being committed. However, I understand why he was 13 asked to do this. I understand completely. I have not 14 committed any crimes. And as far as --

15 THE COURT: This has nothing to do with what I said.

16 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Yes, it does.

17 THE COURT: No.

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Because there's an abuse. You
19 have -- same thing in the 1920s, you have the same thing going 20 on where you have unconscionable illegal acts being committed
21 by those who have been charged with the duty to uphold laws.

22 And these laws were actually regulations of commerce.
23 You have things that were regulated, put into regulations, and 24 people are actually in jails, whether you want to admit it or 25 not or whether you know it or not, by their consent, but it is

1 a manufactured consent.

2 I am saying everyone, we do our jobs correctly, we do
3 our jobs right. The only thing that was closed down was the 4 fraud of corporations operating under the guise of government.

5 I have been in this country, I have worked not just 6 for this country, but for every single human being on this
7 planet only for the last 20 years. That has been what I
8 breathed and lived so that there is no more fraud being 9 committed and there is no more injustice.

10 I'm saying let's do our jobs properly. Let's do the 11 ones we think we're doing. So that is what is happening right
12 now is the disclosure, the actual public awareness that the 13 corporation that was operating under the guise of government
14 wasn't -- wasn't the United States that you thought you were 15 working for. That's all that was --

16 THE COURT: I understand. But your whole praecipe
17 and all your filings say you and your case should be dismissed,
18 not because you're innocent, not because you didn't do anything
19 wrong, but because nobody has any authority to prosecute you.

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No. It's because you're sitting 21 on a corporate bench that actually --

22 THE COURT: Because I'm sitting on a corporate bench,
23 I have no authority to prosecute you or to -- I mean, to sit in 24 judgment of you.

25 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: This is where we had the

1 disconnect that is being resolved right now because of this
2 case, which is why I'm committed to having an amicable
3 disposition of this case so that we can --

4 THE COURT: I mean, that's your point, though.
5 Right? That's your point.

6 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: My point is, that your authority,
7 your jurisdiction, they don't exist under the -- under laws and 8 applications that you didn't even know existed.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I'm saying that I gave you the 11 authority to be able to issue that order, and I'm going to 12 follow that until we have an amicable disposition in this case.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I am not here to harm anyone.
15 I've never harmed anyone, so --

16 THE COURT: Well, the disconnect is you want an 17 amicable disposition. I'm pretty sure you would not agree to 18 being found guilty and being either fined or sentenced to time.

19 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I don't consent to doing any of 20 that, and it never was designed -- this case was not designed,
21 and those involved made sure it would not go there -- it would 22 not go to that disposition.

23 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Svolto, what's the 24 government's response?

25 MS. SVOLTO: We'll rely primarily on our written

1 response. But I'm not sure there's anything I can tell Your
2 Honor or Ms. Tucci-Jarraf or Mr. Beane that will change
3 anyone's minds here.

4 This Court has to find that it has personal
5 jurisdiction over the defendants and subject matter
6 jurisdiction over the defendants. It unquestionably has both.

7 The United States Code, 18 U.S.C. Section 3231 that
8 Your Honor referenced earlier, gives this Court subject matter
9 jurisdiction over matters involving crimes against the United 10 States.

11 It is not in dispute that the defendants were charged
12 by a grand jury for crimes against the United States. So the 13 Court, therefore, under the valid United States Code has 14 subject matter jurisdiction over the criminal case. And the 15 Court has personal jurisdiction over each of the defendants,
16 because they have been charged with a criminal offense.

17 The fact that they were brought here forcibly and 18 without consent does not deprive the Court of personal
19 jurisdiction. As Your Honor has noted, criminal defendants do
20 not have to agree to be prosecuted. And this Court does not 21 have to find that they consent to being prosecuted in order to 22 have personal jurisdiction over the defendants.

23 So the Court certainly has personal jurisdiction over
24 Mr. Beane and Ms. Tucci-Jarraf.

25 With respect to the UCC filings, those have no legal

1 consequence. It appears that the -- you know, the defendants
2 are arguing that there was some sort of default judgment issued
3 against the United States that put the United States in 4 foreclosure or that put the United States in some sort of 5 default. And then they filed the UCC statement saying that.

6 The UCC statement itself has no legal relevance over
7 the jurisdiction of this case. It doesn't appear to be based 8 on an actual judgment anywhere. The fact that it states a 9 declaration of judgment doesn't make it a declaration of 10 judgment. It doesn't mean there was a default judgment.

11 Whether notice of the foreclosure was ever sent to 12 the United States Secretary of State or anyone else does not 13 make the UCC filing statement a valid, enforceable judgment in 14 any way.

15 And because the UCC statement is merely -- a typical 16 UCC filing statement is merely used to perfect a security lien.
17 The security interest and the lien would have to be based on a 18 valid judgment. And no valid judgment against the United 19 States exists here. So the UCC filing statements are of no
20 consequence to the finding of jurisdiction.

21 With respect to the Court and the United States
22 having to prove their authority, the Court is under no
23 obligation to do so, neither is the United States.

24 If the Court has any obligation with respect to the 25 defendants' argument in that matter, it's to tell them that

1 they're wrong. So there is no obligation to prove that Your
2 Honor is an authorized judge.

3 The jurisdiction lies in the statutes we've 4 presented, and that is all that is of consequence here. The 5 Sixth Circuit, the Seventh Circuit have all addressed this.

6 These types of arguments where the court does not 7 have jurisdiction over someone who's essentially claiming to be 8 a sovereign citizen are meritless, and that there is no need to 9 consent to jurisdiction, but that the Court must find personal
10 subject matter jurisdiction.

11 Both of those exist here, and that's the position of 12 the United States. So if there are no questions, I'll --

13 THE COURT: So are you familiar with the United 14 States vs. Pryor?

15 MS. SVOLTO: Yes.

16 THE COURT: And did the Sixth Circuit hold that 17 courts, much like this one, including this one, have both 18 subject matter and in persona jurisdiction in criminal 19 prosecutions?

20 MS. SVOLTO: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Did the Supreme Court deny cert in that?

22 MS. SVOLTO: Yes. That was -- that cert was denied
23 last year. The case came out in 2015 or 2016.

24 THE COURT: And is it your understanding that it's my 25 duty to follow the law of the Sixth Circuit?

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

1 MS. SVOLTO: Yes, it is.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

3 MS. SVOLTO: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Jarraf, response to that?

5 Are you familiar with the Pryor case, U.S. v. Pryor?

6 I can give you the cite if you'd like it.

7 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: No, I'm familiar with all that.

8 THE COURT: Do you agree that it's part of my
9 obligation to follow the rulings of the superior, the court
10 above me, the court of appeals, the Sixth Circuit?

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I am familiar with every case that 12 Anne-Marie Svolto cited.

13 THE COURT: I didn't ask you that. I asked you about 14 matters such as stare decisis, precedent, things like that,
15 that I'm supposed to follow the law when they say what the law
16 is. Right?

17 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I'm familiar with that.

18 THE COURT: I mean, do you agree I'm supposed to do
19 that or not?

20 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Please just make your 21 declarations, and then I'll respond to make my response that 22 you had asked me for.

23 So as far as you kind of -- you asked me do I have a
24 response? I went to start, and then you started in about 25 Pryor.

1 THE COURT: Well, I meant your response to that last
2 part, to the Pryor case. Do you have a response to that?

3 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I have a response to she talked
4 about sovereign citizen, the constitution, as well, was brought 5 in, because she declared that she's relying on her written
6 statements. Correct?

7 THE COURT: Yes, but --

8 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: So as far as sovereign citizen, I
9 cancel that. That's an oxymoron to begin with. I'm not a
10 citizen --

11 THE COURT: You're not a citizen?

12 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- or a sovereign. Sovereign
13 requires someone underneath you to rule -- so that you can rule
14 them. I'm not a sovereign -- I'm not a sovereign citizen. I
15 don't even know what that means. I'm not a constitutionalist,
16 or she even limited to me being a -- am I -- myself and 17 Mr. Randall Beane as being human -- what is it, a bled and -- 18 let me refer to that.

19 She has just before you now declared that she's 20 relying on her filings, her response to supposedly the motion.

21 Number one, I correct the fact that I have not made a
22 motion. I've made a praecipe, based on the due clause.

23 However, as far as her reference right now to a
24 sovereign citizen, there's no way I can be a sovereign citizen.
25 It's an oxymoron just in the actual phrase, sovereign citizen.

1 I don't subscribe to any of that.

2 I don't subscribe to constitutionalism, because of 3 the basis under the fact that the constitution was a contract.
4 I was not a party to or signatory to it. However, through 5 fraud and everything else that has been committed, everyone had 6 been brought in as an employee, which is what the Social 7 Security cards in part are, just in part.

8 I'm not -- no longer that as well. I'm not an 9 employee of any corporation offered under the guise of 10 government. I'm not a citizen of any corporation operating 11 under the guise of government.

12 Again, I do reject -- I duly reject Anne-Marie
13 Svolto's presentment by relying on what she's filed. I orally
14 duly cancel or reject it without dishonor for the same reasons
15 as before, which is, she has not provided identification, due 16 verification, validation of identification, authority or 17 authorization to present on behalf of the United States.

18 And in response to everyone here, the record is still 19 void of anyone's due verification and validation of 20 identification, authority, authorization to present on behalf
21 of, in this case, Anne-Marie Svolto and Cynthia Davidson, to be 22 able to present for the United States, as far as C. Clifford
23 Shirley, Jr. presenting on behalf of, not sure, Eastern
24 District of Tennessee, department -- excuse me, United States,
25 but that is the title you have, United States Eastern District

1 of Tennessee magistrate judge.

2 So all of the record is void of any of that
3 authorization, authority, and identification. I re-declare
4 orally and via praecipe to enter dismissal with prejudice and
5 declaration of due cause. That was document, I believe, 43,
6 and then also Document 54, the praecipe, which was filed
7 yesterday, 10/17/17. As if restated and incorporated by 8 reference as --

9 THE REPORTER: As if what?

10 THE COURT: Set forth in full.

11 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Sorry. The microphone, do I need
12 to pull it closer?

13 THE COURT: Just talk slower.

14 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: Okay. So I accept every statement
15 that has been issued by C. Clifford Shirley, Jr., Anne-Marie
16 Svolto, as well as Cynthia Davidson.

17 THE COURT: What do you mean you accept them?

18 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: I accept all the statements you've 19 made here today.

20 THE COURT: You accept that?

21 MS. TUCCI-JARRAF: -- as proof of collusion,
22 ignorance, and corruption. I at this point would say not 23 corruption, because I believe that there is an ignorance, but 24 not by your design, but by the design of those who actually
25 will be charged -- or excuse me, the accounts ledgered. But it

1 is not due to your own willing and knowing actions of what
2 actually is the law. That is the problem here.

3 So at this point, all of your statements are accepted
4 as proof of, number one, failure to not provide and intent not
5 to provide the sworn verifications and validations that you
6 have -- that are your burden to meet, as well as statements,
7 proof of your ignorance and incompetency to move forward in 8 this particular case. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

10 Now, Mr. Beane.

11 MR. BEANE: Yes. I'd like to accept and adopt what 12 Ms. Tucci-Jarraf has just added.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. BEANE: Also add to -- for myself, the sovereign
15 citizen status that has been pinned on me, I've never admitted
16 to being a sovereign citizen. I do not accept that statement.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. BEANE: It is my understanding a sovereign
19 citizen is considered a terrorist of the United States. And I
20 am not a terrorist. I do not accept being called a sovereign
21 citizen in this courtroom.

22 THE COURT: All right. Is there anything else that 23 you would like to say about any of your other filings?

24 MR. BEANE: Not at this point, no.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else on behalf of the

1 government?

2 MS. SVOLTO: No. Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. The Court will -- I'm going
4 to take all this under advisement. Ordinarily, I would say I
5 would rule on the filings. Little difference here since
6 Ms. Jarraf asked me not to do that, because it's specifically
7 not a motion, but rather an order to me to do something.

8 So I'll just have to take that under advisement, give 9 it my due consideration. And I will issue a ruling in any 10 event, and we'll decide what to do going forward in this 11 matter.

12 All right. There being nothing further, court stands
13 in recess till the trial resumes this afternoon.

14 THE COURTROOM DEPUTY: All rise. This honorable
15 court stands in recess.

16 (Proceedings adjourned at 11:24 a.m.)
